SELLING WAY BELOW VALUE!! Don't settle for a 600cc sportsbike! Get yourself a real bike to ride on this summer!

This 2011 GSXR 750 is by far my favorite bike I have ever ridden. It only has 6k miles but has had its oil changed 3 times already. All work has been done at the dealership and is super clean. I am the original owner and this bike has never been dropped or tipped over. Extras include:

Brembo racing brake calipers

carbon fiber rear seat cowl

KYB steering dampener

blue frame sliders

Michelin Pilot Power 3 tires w/ tons of tread left

carbon fiber tank grip

carbon fiber print gas cover

high visibility reflective rim tape

rear spools

integrated tail light and blinkers (comes standard on gixxers)

Just as an FYI all low ball offers will be laughed at.

FAQ's:

-Why are you selling the bike? I want to buy a house and need a fat down payment

-Can I test ride your bike? Sure! but only if you bring cash in hand if not then you can watch me ride around on it.

-Is there anything wrong with the bike? No. this bike is literally the cleanest bike you will find on the streets.

- Do you want to trade for my gun/truck/lazy little brother? No. unless you brother comes with a down payment for a house.
